

CLASS OF 2019 JUNIORS

Interested in American Politics and Government?

APPLY NOW FOR THE 2018-2019

EAGLETON UNDERGRADUATE ASSOCIATES PROGRAM

The Eagleton Undergraduate Associates program is a 1.5 year interdisciplinary certificate program, open to junior undergraduate students from all Rutgers schools, departments and campuses - including transfer students. Associates learn about real-world American politics, public policy and government from experienced practitioners. Associates take a course at the Eagleton Institute during the spring semester of their junior year and each semester of their senior year, as well as complete an internship in government or politics during the summer/fall of senior year.

Application deadline:
October 23, 2017

Apply online at
<http://go.rutgers.edu/EagletonUA>

WHY APPLY?

- diverse summer/fall internship opportunities
- guest lecturers from the political world
- many networking opportunities
- small seminars with engaging discussions about politics and government
- highly selective program
- network of more than 1,900 Eagleton alumni
- opportunities to participate in special events and great food!
- job placement assistance

QUESTIONS/MORE INFO?

Learn more and apply today!

<http://go.rutgers.edu/EagletonUA>

Questions? Contact Sarah Kozak at undergrad@eagleton.rutgers.edu or 848.932.8760

GET CONNECTED

 /Eagleton.Institute

 @Eagleton_RU

 /EagletonInstitute

eagleton.rutgers.edu

RUTGERS
THE STATE UNIVERSITY
OF NEW JERSEY